

The Longest Table

October 15, 2023

The Longest Table, presented by Feed Evansville, is coming to downtown Evansville, IN. The goal for this FREE dinner event is to build a better sense of community through new relationships; creating connections to strengthen unity and fellowship as we celebrate World Food Day. This is a FREE community dinner, however, please register here on the Eventbrite page.

Why are we planning a Longest Table event? Food is Love. For most people food is equated to love and there is no better setting or time to open individuals up for a new conversation than when they are enjoying a good meal and entertainment. Neighbors of all income levels, backgrounds, and beliefs will have a common table to foster new friendships in Evansville. Building the basic introduction to new individuals can add to everyone's confidence and ability to reach out to one another and bridge gaps in future community unity and endeavors.

Why does Evansville need a Longest Table event? Evansville, like other towns and cities across the nation, faces issues that divide rather than unite. According to the USDA, 40 % of the Neighborhoods in the Evansville area are Food Deserts and 20 % of our residents are dealing with Food Insecurity. The Longest Table event is a day to have fun, recognize efforts toward food security, appreciate volunteers in our city, and build bridges to unite all citizens in conversation.

Funds raised through The Longest Table will be used to further Feed Evansville's Mission and Projects. Please consider participating and becoming a community partner for this unique event through sponsorship.

With your sponsorship, Feed Evansville can increase your company exposure and community engagement, expand your stakeholders, and make a real, tangible impact in the lives of those living in the City of Evansville. We value you, our corporate partners. Together we will make a difference in our community.
